THE CHALLENGE

The web contains limitless data & clues waiting to be found. Its intelligence potential makes it a must-have resource for all security investigations. However, while some of the web is accessible, parts of it - including the private web and the deep & dark web - are cloaked in secrecy. The data comes not only in text but also in difficult to interpret images, audio files and videos. Analysts need flexible and intuitive platforms to access all the data and gain actionable intelligence, fast & accurately.

THE SOLUTION

From web collection to analysis and to active target engagement, Verint's WEBINT is a comprehensive web intelligence platform that empowers your analysts to become web investigation experts across all kinds of content and in any kind of mission. Using embedded expert methodologies & automatic collection and productivity tools, the simple to use Verint's WEBINT skillfully transforms the world's biggest database into a powerful crime & terror fighting resource.

- + Supports over 100 languages
- + Extracts text & metadata from more than 500 file formats
- + Deployed with expert made tailored dictionaries
- + Advanced textual and visual custom-made queries
